

ANGEL LUIS CASTAÑO (Accordion)
Zaragoza, Spain.

Angel Luis Castaño (Spain) was educated at the Paris Conservatory with Max Bonnay and at the Royal Academy of Music in Copenhagen with Mogens Ellegaard in the 90ths. He won a lot of national accordion competitions and in 1990 he won the “Coupe Mondiale 1990” in Trossingen (Deutschland).

He has collaborated and premiered more than 40 pieces for accordion by diverse international composer like David del Puerto, James Mac Millan, Patrick Busseuil, Jesús torres, César Camarero... He has make several concerts in France, Italy, Great Britain, Russia, Denmark, Turkey, Poland, Finland, Indonesia, Deutschland...

He has recorded 12 CDs for accordion, most of them for solo accordion. Actually he is accordion teacher of the Superior Conservatory of Music in Zaragoza (Spain). He was also director of the Acco-Music edition, founder member of Musica Presente and Founder President of Spanish National Accordion Asociation UNAC.